INDIA LEAGUE URGES AMERICAN MEDIATION Fischer On Wavell's Opportunity

PLAN FOR COMPLETE FREEDOM DURING YEAR FOLLOWING JAP SURRENDER

NEW YORK, August 9 (delayed).

Speaking at a rally of the India League of America at the anniversary of the arrest of Congressites, the writer, Louis Fischer, said that Field Marshal Wavell's arrival in India in October could be made the occasion of an easy settlement of the Indian problem. Nationalists wanted nothing more than an Indian "Nationalist" Government with limited functions which would collaborate with the United Nations and help win war.

CONGRESS DEMAND

"Neither Mr. Gandhi nor any other Indian leader is asking the British to quit during the war."

Mr. Fischer outlined a series of concrete steps leading upto complete freedom for India during the year following the surrender of Japanese.

THE MEETING PASSED A RESOLUTION MOVED BY THE PRESIDENT, MR. J. J. SINGH URGING THE MEDIATION OF THE UNITED STATES WITH A VIEW TO ESTABLISHMENT OF A PROVISIONAL "NATIONALIST" GOVERNMENT, COMMITTED WHOLE- HEARTEDLY TO THE WAR.—Reuter.

Call For Congress- League Unity

DURBAN, Aug. 11.—A meeting in Durban organised by the India League to mark the first anniversary of the arrest of Mahatma Gandhi and other Indian leaders unanimously adopted a resolution declaring a United India is essential for destruction of Fascism and called on the National Congress and the Muslim League to sink their differences in order to realise Indian independence.

The resolution also asked the Governments of India and Britain to free the Indian leaders and declare Indian independence.—Reuter.

Parnell's Strategy Recalled

(From A Special Correspondent.)
LONDON, August 11.
Mr. Frank Colebrook, famous Parliamentary correspondent in 1884, in the course of a letter published in the "Manchester Guardian" says:

"Like Charles Dickens and Lord Lintilhigo put aside any problem he fails to solve or understand, whereupon he expects the problem to solve itself."

Lord Carnarvon met Mr. Parnell in an empty House and they talked matters over and came to some agreement. History never exactly repeats itself but has pointers for remembering and reflecting minds. I commend the reminiscence as relevant and suggestive.

(Mr. Parnell who was returned as a Home Ruler for County Meath then himself energetically into Irish political affairs and organised the Irish Party in the House of Commons. After initiating a system of deliberate obstruction in Parliament and acquiring considerable influence, he and his followers succeeded in wrecking the first Salisbury Government. Later he developed an alliance with Mr. Gladstone in the hope of realising Irish Home Rule ambitions.)

Several persons were killed as a result of police firing on a crowd of about 100 persons while looting a grain godown, says a report received from Dohad in the Panchmahals District.

It is stated that the police first tried to prevent the mob from looting. But the latter being persistent, fire had to be opened with the above result.

Seven arrests have been made in this connection.—United Press.

Several persons were killed and a large number of cattle were destroyed following heavy floods in a number of streams in Rawalpindi District, including Sohian. According to information received here from Kahuta, Gujarkhan and many other places all water-grinding-mills operating on the banks of Sohian river have been completely washed away. A number of small children are included amongst the casualties while the loss of property is estimated to be considerable.—A. P.

NO QUORUM FOR SECRET SESSION?

Two Adjournments Tabled For Central Assembly

NEW DELHI, Aug. 11.
Arising from certain developments in the course of to-day's secret session of the Central Assembly, two members have tabled adjournment motions for discussion tomorrow.

Nawab Siddiqi Khan, a member of the Muslim League, has asked for leave to discuss "the importance of Government members in time to help in constituting a quorum to hold the afternoon meeting of the secret session on August 11, thereby depriving the House of the most valuable privilege of eliciting full information about the war situation and discussing the same."

Sardar Mangal Singh, a member of the Congress Party has given notice of a motion to discuss "the failure of Government members to attend the session in the House after lunch on August 11, which resulted in want of quorum for the transaction of the business of the House."

A number of questions about war was raised in the Central Assembly to-day by Mr. Hossainbhoy A. Laljee. Mr. Hossainbhoy asked if Government had ever considered the question of appointing an outstanding Indian woman, conversant with the customs and traditions of Indian women as chief commander of the Indian Section of the W.A.C. (I).

Mr. Trivedi replied that there was no Indian section of the W.A.C. (I). Indian Lady as Chief Commander of such a section did not, therefore, arise. The Government had Indian ladies in important positions in the Corps.

Sir Jeremy Raisman, Finance Member, informed Dr. N. B. Bannerjee that on reference to London, he had learnt that owing to an error in transmission "India" was incorrectly substituted for "Canada" in the Press report published in this country to the effect that "India's financial help to Britain was mentioned in the Commons on July 22, Sir Stanley Reed (Conservative) said that the Chancellor had mentioned the attention of the House to the easement in British finance effected by the generosity of India."

After questioning Mr. Reed regarding the easement in British finance effected by the generosity of Canada, Mr. Bannerjee asked the Government to introduce a resolution to discuss the war situation.

Six members of the Congress Party were present.—A. P.

R.A.F. BOMBS NUREMBERG
The Air Ministry Communiqué states that Nuremberg, one of the most important railway and industrial centres in southern Germany, was very heavily bombed last night by aircraft of the Bomber Command. Three German fighters were destroyed.

Sixteen R.A.F. bombers are missing.—Reuter.

National Prayer Day On September 3
LONDON, August 11: The following official announcement was issued from Buckingham Palace to-night: "It is the desire of His Majesty the King that September 3, being the fourth anniversary of the outbreak of war, should be observed as a national day of prayer and dedication.—Reuter."

MORE DARING PLAN IN OFFING
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.
Well-informed quarters here believe that the unexpected successes which have attended Allied arms since their last meeting, have confronted Mr. Churchill and President Roosevelt with the most critical decision of the war in their view the new talks will determine the exact strategy and timing of the much discussed offensive in Western Europe. It is the remarkable summer victory of the Red Army rather than the British-American triumph in Tunisia and Sicily that has called for a rapid revision of Allied plans only ten weeks after the Washington Conference.

A high Allied authority told me: "Speed will be the dominating note of the present talks. The Soviet advance, now threatening to eject the Germans from Kharkov and the entire Ukraine, has opened up the dash-line prospect of victory. Even if this is too optimistic an idea, it is undeniable that victory is much nearer than it was in May."

There is a growing feeling here that an invasion of Italy—regarded as certainly only two weeks ago—may be scrapped in favour of a more daring plan.—Reuter.

SCOPE OF CONFERENCE
QUEBEC, August 11.
From Reuter's Special Correspondent:—

When Mr. Churchill met members of the War Committee of the Canadian Cabinet to-day, he gave them, it is understood, an outline of the scope of the conferences to be held here. With this meeting the real work of Military Chiefs of the Combined Staffs is now under way.—Reuter.

SOVIET DRIVE ON BRYANSK

Khotinets Captured After Fierce Battle
MOSCOW, Aug. 10.
It is officially announced that the railway station of Khotinets is captured by the Soviet troops.

Reuter's special correspondent in Moscow writes Khotinets, a key rail town 30 miles east of Bryansk, fell only after fierce battles. The Germans, in a strong Luftwaffe force, made one thousand plane attacks in a day. Soviet pilots kept the initiative in their hands and heavily bombed German divisions as they rolled back. The Soviet troops are striking blows against the enemy.

TORPEDOED IN INDIAN OCEAN
MELBOURNE, August 11.
Twenty-four men from a British ship torpedoed in the Indian Ocean have arrived in two lifeboats at a group of islands in the Indian Ocean after being at sea for nearly a month.

All the four of the lifeboats have now been accounted for. The first two with 23 survivors on board were picked up by the British ship "Australia" last month. Two of the ships complement lost their lives.—Reuter.

On the flank and not permitting him to make organised retreat westward to the coast, the key outpost in the Bryansk defence.

The first of these is immediately threatened by a Russian force which is less than the German force. The Russian force is now 36 miles west of Kharkov.

On the Bryansk front, practically the whole of the 30 mile stretch of railway from Orel to Khotinets is now in Soviet hands. South of the railway, the Germans are counter-attacking fiercely.

In a torpedo attack on a convoy off Corsica, Allied coastal air force Beaufighters scored two hits on the German merchantmen escorted by a destroyer and small escort vessels.

Shipping situation and outlook must have an influence in the programme for operations in the Far East. Equally the naval position in the Pacific will be changed once the Allies no longer need to earmark so many warships to watch the Italian fleet in the Mediterranean.—Reuter.

Allies Capture Guardia

British Navy Shells Italian Mainland
ALGIERS, Aug. 11.
It is officially announced that Guardia on the east coast of Sicily, northward of Acireale on the line to Riposto, has been captured.

From Reuter's Special Correspondent:—
"With the capture of Guardia on the slopes of Mount Etna the Eighth Army is now in sight of the Italian mainland."

The British Navy shelled the Italian mainland in the Gulf of Naples. The Germans are still sending out a steady stream of men and material to Sicily and German prisoners report that they have instructions that any Italian troops or civilians who get in their way must be ruthlessly thrust aside.

To-day's North Africa Communiqué states: "Progress continues to be made whilst our troops overcome enemy resistance and deal with the obstacles he is leaving. The Eighth Army has advanced from two to three miles in the coastal sector and captured Guardia. To the west of Mount Etna, our troops are attacking north against very strong resistance. The Seventh Army troops have made contact with the forward troops of the Eighth Army north and west of Bronte. In the north coastal sector American forces have consolidated position and are preparing for successful operations at the mouth of the river. The Sicilian coast four small vessels were sunk and many others damaged. Eight fighters shot down five enemy aircraft and destroyed yesterday's operations. Five of our aircraft are missing."

In torpedo attack on a convoy off Corsica, Allied coastal air force Beaufighters scored two hits on the German merchantmen escorted by a destroyer and small escort vessels.

Smuts' 'No' To Indian Deputation

Sees Threat In Appeal To U. S. And British Opinion

MARITZBURG, August 11.
General Smuts has declined to receive a deputation from the South African Indian Congress which desired to submit resolutions adopted at the recent meeting.

General Smuts' Secretary in reply to the Congress said: "The Prime Minister wishes me to add, that in view of the threat of appeal to other countries, he does not wish to see the deputation."

One of the relevant resolutions empowered Congress to send a deputation to Britain and the United States to inform the people of those countries of the position of South African Indians.

S. AFRICAN PAPER'S THREAT
JOHANNESBURG.—The Nationalist Newspaper "Transvaler" commenting on the Reciprocity Bill says that India has the full right to protect herself against foreign penetration, including European and South Africans, but if the Bill is intended as a retaliatory measure, instead of a matter of principle India will achieve only small results. The Indian Government is welcome to begin ejecting of South Africans from India in the process of removing the European danger, then South Africa can also begin with ejecting Indians to solve the Indian problem in South Africa.—Reuter.

CHURCHILL'S THREAT TO BR. POSTMEN

The warning says this also means the loss of all accumulated pension rights.—Reuter.

Cyrenaica, Libya, should not only be handed back to Italy but should be constituted as sovereign independent States. By another resolution the same member seeks to abolish the mandates over Palestine, Syria and Lebanon.—Orient Press of India.

R If You Go Away...

If you or anybody in your house goes away from Bombay for more than seven days, report the fact to your Ward Rationing Office. And don't draw rations for that period.

It is an offence not to report such departures. It is an offence to draw rations for an absent person. It is also anti-social to do either of these things, which must tend ultimately to reduce the ration for everybody.

If you know anybody guilty of such offences, send a confidential report to the Controller of Rationing.

ROOSEVELT-CHURCHILL CONFERENCE

Does the fact lend itself to speculation that Mr. Churchill arrived in Canada only a day or so after President Roosevelt's holiday in that country? That they missed each other may suggest that Mr. Churchill decided upon his flight to North America almost suddenly. But if Mr. Churchill's impending Conference is not the outcome of a sudden urgency, it is sufficiently important in view of two events that have happened lately. The first, of course, is the debacle of Mussolini and Fascism in Italy. Marshal Badoglio has declared that the war goes on and it is just as likely as not that he may try to continue it for as long a period as he possibly can. But he is also tentatively seeking terms for terminating it and has now gone so far as to allow it to be said that after their "liberation" from Fascism, the people of Italy desire peace. He is trying hard to secure terms which will take Italy out of the war without involving complete surrender and without condemning her to become a battleground between the Allies and Germany and an Allied base for further operations. America and Britain cannot oblige King Victor Emmanuel and Marshal Badoglio. But even if the Italians resist, some time, significant developments, both political and military, are bound to take place in the near future. And they need discussion.

It is noteworthy that Marshal Stalin, who, too, is keenly interested in the Italian developments, is again to be absent from the Conference. Which brings us to the next important subject that has necessitated the Roosevelt-Churchill Conference. It is the revival of the Russian demand, and this time in sharp tones, for a Second Front. The Russians feel, and say it, that Sicily is of little value because a Second Front should divert at least 80 German divisions from Russia. They bluntly recall the promises made at Casablanca and decline to appreciate the alleged difficulties—logistical and so on—of the Allies which might have been reasonable two years ago, but which have little substance now. The Russian case is too strong to be met by mere apology and, apart from the justice of their demand, its tone admits of no temporising. Observers believe that Russia's call for an invasion of western Europe will form a principal item on the agenda of the forthcoming conference. We hope they are right. When the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of Great Britain meet they will necessarily discuss all aspects of the global war. But the failure or success of the meeting will be judged on how Italy is dealt with and, even more, on how the Russian demand is met.

Coming To Grips

The Reciprocity Bill had little difficulty in passing the Council of State without any amendment. But Pandit Kunzru did well to point out that under the present constitution the Government of India cannot deprive any South African in India either of his franchise or any office and that retaliatory action like this is possible only if the Government of India Act is suitably amended. It remains to be seen whether the Government of India will press for the suggested amendment or let the Reciprocity Act remain a dead letter. Meanwhile, the South African Nationalist Newspaper, "Transvaler", has started threatening that the Union Government will take more drastic action against the Indian residents than the Government of India can take against South Africans in India. And General Smuts has flown into such a temper that he has declined to receive a deputation from the South Africa Indian Congress which desired to submit the resolutions adopted at its recent meeting. His professed objection is that one of the resolutions contemplates a deputation to Britain and the United States. But it is clear he is disconcerted by the Reciprocity Act. It may be that the Union Government will harass Indians if the Government of India and the British Government merely look on. But that certainly will not be the last word of the episode.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Unexceptionable, But—

Newspapers are regularly favoured, semi-officially, with a lot of speeches and comments relating to the war. In the latest of these bromides is presumably a helpful contribution from a speech made in July 1941 by Mr. R. G. Casey, then Australian Minister to the United States and now British Minister of State in the Middle East. Here it is: "We, Australians, did not go to war because of some European dispute. We went to war because we realized that, if every one of us did not stand by Britain and throw ourselves across the track of this Nazi juggernaut, the writing was on the wall for democracy and for our way of life—and for us." The sentiments motivating Australia's attitude are unexceptionable. But we miss any reference to "the Empire", "the Commonwealth" and "the Mother country" of which Messrs. Churchill and Amery talk so proudly, so loudly and so offensively.

Ill-Advised

Political party quarrels often leave the common people untroubled but they can be and have been a source of economic and political disaster. Mr. G. M. Syed's "Buy Muslim" campaign in Sind may have been well-meant but in the present communal tension it may lead to further economic and political disaster. Muslims may suffer a great deal, apart from the certain loss to the province as a whole as the result of such economic civil strife. Surely there are safer ways of helping the Muslims. Let them be enabled to produce some kind of utilities, say, hand-spun cloth, and they will be benefited by both the Hindu and Muslim purchasers.

Yugoslavian Crisis Solved

While there is no clue to the mystery of the sudden resignation of the Yugoslavian cabinet, King Peter has at any rate succeeded in appointing a new Government in record quick time. The fact that the new cabinet is likely to move to Cairo is extremely significant and affords an indirect indication that interesting developments are likely to follow in the Balkans in the near future. The retention of General Draza Mihailovich as Minister of War in the new cabinet is a significant move. It shows that the confidence of King Peter—and, if we may say so, of the British Foreign Office. There have been reports of rapprochement between the General and the Partisans and provided that they have really patched up their internal quarrel, Mihailovich will play an important part in restoring the freedom of his country.

"CONGRESS MUST FACE LEAGUE ISSUE"

Mr. Q. M. Isa, President of the Baluchistan Muslim League and member of the All-India Muslim League Working Committee, who has just returned from a fortnight in the Frontier Province, has issued a statement on the result of the N. W. F. P. Assembly by-elections asking the Congress to face its policy and face new issues boldly.

He says: "The Frontier by-elections were a blessing in disguise. They have shown the whole world the trend of the Muslim masses. They should prove an eye-opener to the Congress and their Hindu supporters that their calculations went wrong once again. The elections were fought on the issue of Pakistan and Akhand Hindustan and none can close his eyes to what the Mussalmans want. For the Congress to think even now that they represent the whole of India, including the hundred million Mussalmans, is like living in a fool's paradise. The Mussalmans have said that they are with the Muslim League everywhere I now say to the Congress:—

"You did everything possible to disrupt the unity of the Mussalmans. To bring them under your yoke, you created 'Quintings' and 'sona' Gandhis and you put up a showboy as your president. But you have hopelessly failed. Now give up this dishonest and unscrupulous game and change your policy and face the new issues boldly."—A. P.

(Through A.P. and U.P.)

SYLHET, August 9. Maulana Muazzam Hussain said to be the Amir of the Assam Provincial Jamiet-ul-Ulema, has been arrested in connection with holding an unlicensed meeting at Sylhet, a few months ago. Ibrahim Chauli, fourth 'dictator' of the Sylhet Congress Committee, now declared unlawful, and Messrs. Hemendrakumar Roy and S. N. Bhattacharya, who were arrested under Rule 129 of the Defence of India Act and detained in jail.

Eighteen members of the Congress and the Jamiet Ulema have been arrested today for holding an unauthorised procession at Sylhet town. GORAKHPUR, Aug. 11.—When the case against Mr. Shibban Lal Sakseena was placed on the agenda of the Court, the Government Pleader, the Court adjourned the case to August 24.

Another application was moved on behalf of Mr. Lakshmi Shanker Verma, Defence Counsel, praying for the stay of proceedings against the accused to enable them to move the Government Pleader for the release of the case to some other District.

After the application had been opposed by Mr. Mohanlal Mohanlal Zaki, Government Pleader, the Court adjourned the case to August 24. Another application was moved on behalf of Mr. Lakshmi Shanker Verma, Defence Counsel, praying for the stay of proceedings against the accused to enable them to move the Government Pleader for the release of the case to some other District.

ARRESTS IN SIND
HYDERABAD, (Sind) Aug. 11.—With the arrest of 13 persons including six ladies last night under the Defence of India Rules, the number of arrests in the town is 35. Of these 14 boys and 13 girls have been kept in the jail while the rest are being sent up for trial.

At Larkana the police effected one arrest and at Kambar some searches were made. One of the arrested persons was a woman. One arrest was made in this connection.

MADRAS CONVICTIONS
MADRAS, August 11.—The Third Presidency Magistrate has sentenced K. N. Sarma, a student of the Sixth Form of the Hindu High School, Triplicane, to undergo simple imprisonment for six months on a charge of asking the students of the school not to attend classes on August 9 last, shouting slogans and carrying a procession in contravention of an order of the Police Commissioner. The accused was placed in jail.

ARRESTS IN CALCUTTA
CALCUTTA, August 11.—Eight persons were arrested in connection with the long awaited far-well address of His Excellency the Viceroy to the joint session of the Central Legislature has come and gone and it has destroyed the hopes of any Indian now, if it becomes necessary, impose the same restrictions on South Africa and India as are already imposed on Indians in South Africa and take other retaliatory measures" said Mr. M. L. Dhananukar in the course of his speech while presiding over the Maharashtra Chamber of Commerce at the third quarterly General Meeting held on Wednesday evening, Bombay.

Continuing he said the feeling of resentment existing in the country over the 'Penguin' legislation in the South African Union being great, the Overseas Member is really to be congratulated on his immediately taking up the question and carrying out the amendment of the Reciprocity Act.

Concluding Mr. Dhananukar said: "Before we pass on to the subject I should like to refer to Ordinance (XVI) of 1943 in respect of the Excess Profits Tax providing for summary assessment of profits. The Tax and drawing into State Exchequer all but 6-2/3 per cent and the new defence of the India and it had rendered prohibitive issues of new capital without permission from Government of India. It is an undisputed fact that India needs development both in the agricultural as well as industrial field in order to increase her production. Both these measures will have an adverse effect on the development of industries. Paying up in all 93-1/3 per cent of the excess profits will cause difficulties to many concerns.

Punjab National Bank

Chairman Entertained
Lala Yodh Raj, Chairman of the Punjab National Bank Ltd., was entertained at a party at the Hotel on Wednesday evening by Mr. Tuli Ram and some other city merchants. Welcoming the guest, Mr. Tuli Ram stated that the Punjab National Bank had made phenomenal progress since Lala Yodh Raj became the Chief of the bank and it had rendered great services to the public and to the merchants. Seth Pranlal Devkar, Nanjwa referred to the business-like qualities of the guest, and stated the Punjab National Bank was one of the oldest and most important banks of India, included in the 'big five'.

Lala Yodh Raj, replying referred to the dangers of inflation in the country. Speaking of the growing sterling balance, he opined that it was very necessary that the industrial and commercial magnates should press the Government to cancel some well-defined plans for the disposal of the sterling balance to the benefit of India in the post-war period.

No Jurisdiction

BOMBAY, Wednesday. Kanji Krishna Nambiar, a military sepoy who was charged with causing hurt by means of a dangerous weapon was put up before Mr. T. S. Vyas, Presidency Magistrate, Dadar Court. The Magistrate, after the case was put up before him, held that he had no jurisdiction to try the case, as the prosecution had not previously obtained permission from the Military authorities, by a Military Officer.

DISASTROUS FLOOD IN MEWAR

Fifteen Thousand Persons
Estimated To Have Been Lost

BOMBAY, Aug. 11. Mr. Makhanlal Sakseria, brother of the well-known millionaire, Seth Govindram Sakseria of Bombay, who was in Merwara at the time disastrous flood took place on 30th July and returned to Bombay on August 8, interviewed by a representative of the "Bombay Chronicle" gave very harrowing details about the loss of men and property. He estimates the total casualty of human beings killed and lost in the flood at not less than 15 to 20 thousand.

It appears that heavy downpour started at night on the 30th July and continued till next morning, when the river Khari, which is near Vijayanagar, began to overflow with a tremendous force and the adjoining lakes and bunds immediately burst, as a result of which, the city of Vijayanagar was inundated. The waters reached a height of fifteen to sixteen feet. Sakseria mills and houses of the city were full of water. The workers of the mills had just arrived. About 50 workmen were drowned. Not less than 2,500 men residing in the city were drowned and lost. People began to run away from the city. Many persons, who had taken shelter on the roofs of their houses were also drowned. Thousands of dead bodies were floating on the river.

Besides Vijayanagar, Rajnagar, which is five miles away from the city, according to Mr. Sakseria, been completely wiped out. Only two or three houses have remained. Gulabpura has lost about 300 men. Reports of loss of human life in other cities have not been received, but, according to Mr. Sakseria it is estimated that about fifteen to twenty thousand men have lost their lives in the whole of Ajmer-Mewar.

Loss of property reaches a figure of more than two crores of rupees. Vijayanagar mills have lost property worth 30 lakhs of rupees.

HEROIC DEEDS
Some persons miraculously saved. A man in Vijayanagar had mounted a cotton bale and though he was carried away eight miles he was able to save his life. A Brahmin named Basturam had taken shelter on a big tree. He had saved eight lives. A Sikh watchman had taken shelter on a high wall and had saved more than fifty persons but lost his own life while trying to save three more persons.

Entire families have been wiped out. A family of 53 persons disappeared and the last survivor committed suicide!

Latest news gathered from persons returning to Bombay from the affected areas mentions that the Kadeda, a village near the Khari river, all the houses have collapsed except three. This village has lost about a thousand persons. Three miles from the Khari river Hurda, Dhanope and Pooni villages have entirely disappeared. Those who have been saved are without any food or clothes. It is necessary to send immediate relief to these places.

RATIONING FOR ALL CITIES

NEW DELHI, August 11. It has been decided that all preliminary steps shall be taken for the introduction of urban food rationing, and a course of instruction will very shortly be arranged in Bombay, where food rationing is already functioning satisfactorily, for provincial and state Government officers. It is understood that this decision, arising directly out of the recommendation of the Food Conference, and what is believed to be the strong opinion of the Foodgrains Policy Committee, has followed the submission of a report by Mr. W. H. Kirby, Rationing Adviser to the Government of India, who was the Ministry of Food and Civil Supplies, during his tour, Mr. Kirby had discussions on food rationing with Provincial Governments, Divans and Agents of certain States and important officials of Provincial Governments.

All food rationing schemes must be an integral part of effective control over supplies. This control can be obtained in three ways: The first is complete ownership by the Government of scheduled grains from producer to the retailer. The second is to use the trade to carry out operations on behalf of the Government by the third is a mixture of the two alternatives, which has usually been found to be the most satisfactory.

It is believed that other recommendations of the food rationing report are:—

(1) A comprehensive, efficient and rationing scheme should be brought into immediate operation in all the larger cities of the country.

(2) The fact that supply conditions are not yet satisfactory in certain areas is no reason for postponing rationing. The uncertainty of supply is an additional reason why strict rationing must be brought into force immediately. The basic ration can be increased as the supply position improves.

(3) Provinces and states should keep to a uniform model scheme and only after details to suit local conditions. All rationing should be taken to ensure an equitable distribution and rationing of all essential food supplies, and not only those commodities which at present seem to be in short supply.

(4) It is desirable to establish food advisory or food control committees throughout the country.

Mr. Kirby has made a number of other recommendations in his report which is now under consideration by the Government.—A. P.

TÊTE-À-TÊTE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

We are in effect sitting on a safety valve. When sooner or later the political elements in India explode, we shall have only ourselves to blame.

For the Government of India is at present a virtual dictatorship for which we cannot disclaim responsibility.

"News Chronicle" of London.

We congratulate Reuters on having waked up again and given us after eight days, a third British comment of Lord Lillithgow's speech.

But we are profoundly disappointed and very nearly irritated by Reuters' inability to realise that actually is also frankly hostile to the noble Lord.

Why has this great Imperial News Agency suddenly become perverse? Or is it that it is innocent?

Appropos of Sir Azizul Haque's speech in the Central Assembly "its keynote was an attitude of self-righteousness so far as the Government of India was concerned."

An assurance is necessary and we give it to you in all earnestness that the report is by the New Delhi correspondent of an Anglo-Indian contemporary and that the word "self-righteousness" does occur in it.

Moreover, it also sought to lay "the blame largely at the door of the Provincial Governments who had, in his opinion, been acting too autonomously and in disregard of the economic unity of India."

We think both the offending parties, we mean, Sir Azizul Haque and the Anglo-Indian correspondent deserve sharp and severe denunciation by the Qaid-e-Azam. We need scarcely add that they were maliciously inspired by the Hindu Congress.

It is announced that Mr. Winston Churchill has arrived in Canada.

The fact that the British Premier did so immediately AFTER President Roosevelt's alleged holiday in that part of "The British Empire and Commonwealth" almost provokes questions.

The German radio assures the world that there has been no change in the German point of view with regard to the treaty of alliance with Italy. Quite right. But what about the Italian point of view?

The Home radio now says that there is no denying the desire on the part of "liberated" Italians for peace and escape from the horrors of war. Progress is slow but steady.

Harwood League

CITY POLICE'S HOPES FRUSTRATED

The last match in the Senior Harwood League was played off at the Cooperage on Wednesday when the City Police accounted for the Y.M.C.A. by three goals to nil. Had the Police succeeded in raising the total to eight, they would have retained their runners-up position of last year and deprived the Snappers of the honour gained by them on goal average. The Police led by one goal at the interval. Adams being responsible for the point. In the second half Stanley booked the second goal from a clear outside position. Adams scored the third goal of the day with a fine header. After the match, Mrs. D. Moir, wife of the President of the W.F.A. presented the trophies and medals to the winners and runners-up, the W.F.A. Staff and the Snappers respectively.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

On taking over charge of the Department of Food, Sir J. P. Srivastava would be well advised to have a placard hanging on the walls of his room reading: "Before the hungry, even God dare not appear except in the shape of bread!" These are the Mahatma's words uttered in 1921—so Mrs. Naidu reminds us. To which Sir J. P. Srivastava should add: "If God cannot appear how can I?"

Mr. Churchill's dash to Canada and the forthcoming talks between the British Prime Minister and the U. S. President indicate that sooner or later there is to be a clarification of Allied War aims. This appears to loom large on the Allied horizon and though military matters will obviously also be discussed, it shows that the conflicting political policies of the Allied nations is long overdue. M. Stalin has played his part in disbanding the Communist International. But Mr. Churchill has not yet renounced his Empire. America, too, does not say what its future policy is going to be. The war has hitherto been so much the predominant fact in men's lives that the future has had to wait. Now that the tide has turned in favour of the Allies, the common man of the democracies feel they should be told what they are fighting for. Hitherto they have been content to be told that they have to fight because they have no alternative. They accepted that in the dark days of the war when Hitler's armies were pressing forward and when bastion after bastion had crumbled into dust. To-day the Allied soldiers have swept so much before them that the world feels it has the right to know what the leaders intend to build for these soldiers in the future. Betrayed after the last war, they will not again allow themselves to be pushed into the background after this war. They will claim the earth as their heritage and they will claim equal opportunity as a birthright. These thoughts have apparently crossed the minds of Churchill and Roosevelt. One of these days they have to clarify the issue that faces all the world—the issue of the future.

Our Poona correspondent says that Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin are all in Poona and can be seen on the track almost every morning. Add to that Gwalior's two-year old Chiang Kai-Shek and the Conference would be complete.
